

Meet Buddy

Buddy, a fantastic pit bull, needed surgery to repair torn ligaments in his knee. Weeks passed as potential adopters found themselves attracted to Buddy's personality, but as soon as they saw the knee they moved on to look at another dog. The Santa Barbara County Animal Care Foundation became aware of Buddy's dilemma and funded his surgery. After many weeks of recovery in a devoted foster home, Buddy found his forever family.