

Meet Penny

Penny's spinal column was fractured at an early age, leaving her rear legs totally paralyzed. The Santa Barbara County Animal Care Foundation provided the wheels to get her to all of the places she wanted to go; which included a forever family.